

NJSIA Annual Seminar on Insurance Fraud

Speakers

Interested in speaking at our next annual seminar? Now is the time to let us know.

Here is your opportunity to share your experience and knowledge with your peers in the insurance fraud industry by submitting a written proposal or abstract which you can develop into a presentation for NJSIA's Annual Seminar.

The NJSIA is seeking a variety of topics that are educational and relevant to insurance fraud.

Deadline to submit a written proposal or abstract is : April 1st for that coming October's Seminar.
(See NJSIA.org's web site for exact dates of Seminar & Deadline)

Speakers chosen for further consideration will be notified by the NJSIA.

Learn more:

- Email Howard Potter at: HPotter@njsia.org ,
-or-
- Print and Mail this PDF Speaker's Abstract Form .

Mail your Speaker's Abstract Form to:

NJSIA
Attn: Seminar Committee
PO Box 873
Toms River, N.J. 08754-0873

Any questions please, or contact NJSIA (www.NJSIA.org). Thank you!

*Please submit the following information – all questions must be answered
Use additional Word document or typed paper if necessary.*

Speaker's Name:

Address:

City/State:

Company:

Telephone:

Email:

NJSIA Member:

Speaker's background and public speaking experience:

Presentation Topic:

In a 100 words or less, tell us about your presentation and relevance to insurance fraud: